'Reading Disabilities' To Be Topic for Forum

"The Team Approach to Reading Disabilities" will be the theme of the third annual Interprofessional Forum, sponsored by the South Bay Optometric Society, to be held tomorrow evening, at Harbor College.

The program will begin at 7 o'clock. The public is invited.

Opening ceremonies will be conducted by Dr. John Chase, president of the local Society.

Dr. Delwyn G. Shubert will lecture on "Faulty Vision and the Disabled Reader." Dr. Shubert is an associate professor of education and director of the reading clinic at Los Angeles State College of Applied Arts and Sciences.

Dr. James R. Gregg will lecture on "Seeing for Reading in a Scientific Age." Dr. Gregg, professor of psychophysiological optics at the Los Angeles College of Optometry, has a part time practice and is a free lance writer.

Bloodmobile Sets Visit

Its blood giving time again at Harbor College. Harbor students are expected to donate more than 100 pints of blood when the Red Cross Bloodmobile comes to the Wilmington campus tomorrow, according to Edward Robings, Assistant Dean of Student Activities.

Donors automatically become members of the Harbor College Blood Bank. To qualify as a blood donor the student must be at least 21 years of age or married. Unmarried minors between the age of 18 and 21 must have the written consent of a parent or guardian.

The Bloodmobile will be at the Seahawk Center from 9:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

Local Girl Joins Cast In Drama

A Torrance student, Carol Brown of 307 Via Monte D' Oro, is included in the cast of "The Right Honourable Gentleman," fall theatre offering of the University of Southern California.

The play will run through Saturday, at 8 p.m., in the Bovard Auditorium on campus. Admission is $1.50 week nights and $2 on weekends.

The production relates the true story of a sex scandal involving a highly-placed government official in Victorian England.

Pekingese Club Sets Annual Show

The Pekin Pekingese Club will hold its annual Fall Match for the competitive showing of Pekingese two months of age through adult classes at Torrance Park Sunday.

Judging by Mrs. Jean Thomas of San Mateo, president of the Pekingese Club of Central California, will begin at 10:30 a.m.

Area Musician Resumes Study

Gary M. Anderson, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. K. L. Anderson, 2747 Grand Summit Road, will assume his studies at Boston's Bertlee School of Music, where he is majoring in composition.
